

ANGELIA CHUA

NHG College Faculty Member

Family Physician – Consultant & Core faculty, Family Medicine Residency Program

National Healthcare Group Polyclinics

Honorary Visiting Family Physician

National University Hospital

Undergraduate Clinical Teacher & Clinical Practice Facilitator

Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine, NTU

Undergraduate Clinical Lecturer

NUS School of Medicine

MORE ABOUT ANGELIA

Angelia is a Family Physician Consultant in National Healthcare Group Polyclinics. She graduated from National University of Singapore and obtained her Master of Medicine in Family Medicine in Singapore. She was also conferred a Fellow of the College of Family Physicians in Singapore.

She is the core faculty member of the NHG Family Medicine Residency Program since 2013. She is also actively involved in undergraduate teaching at Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine and Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine. She is also the Pediatrics key specialty advisor in NHGP and had been instrumental in implementing the transcutaneous bilirubin service in NHGP in October 2018.

Adding years of healthy life