

TEOH YEN TJUIN, EUGENE

NHG College Faculty Member

Nurse Educator, Nursing Service (Nursing Education and Practice)

Tan Tock Seng Hospital

MORE ABOUT EUGENE

AREA OF INTEREST (RELATED TO EDUCATION)

Main area of interests is in nursing education with a focus on the transition to practice journey of new nurses and training effectiveness. He is also interested in nurse-led evidence-based practice training within the field of oncology and palliative care nursing.

EDUCATION PROJECT OR EDUCATION RESEARCH PROJECT

- 2018 – The experiences of Sub-Acute Geriatric Monitoring Unit nurses: An exploratory qualitative study (Site Principal Investigator)
- 2018 – Effectiveness of a nursing orientation programme for new nurses in a public hospital (Principal Investigator)
- 2016 - What does it take to be a nurse preceptor? An exploratory study on newly qualified nurses' perceptions and experiences of working with preceptors (Co-Investigator)
- 2014 - Effectiveness of a Transition to Practice Programme for Newly Qualified Registered Nurses: A mixed method study (Principal Investigator)
- 2012 - Lost in Transition – Newly qualified Registered Nurses and their transition to practice journey : A qualitative descriptive study (Site Principal Investigator)
- 2011 - Effectiveness of strategies in enhancing transfer of learning in newly graduated nurses (Co-investigator)

TEACHING AWARDS

- National Healthcare Group Outstanding Nurse Teacher Award, 2014